Father John's Corner

As I mentioned in last Sunday's bulletin, we will be having training for our RE teachers on Saturday, September 15 and throughout the year. I have invited the office of Lay Formation under the Newman Institute to run their series "Foundation of Faith." This course is open to all in our parish and possibly some others from neighboring parishes.

During this year, which coincides with the Year of Faith proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI, I hope to strengthen our commitment in renewing our faith and the faith of our children. Please join us in this very important endeavor. The first course is "New Evangelization." Below is a brief description of the course.

New Evangelization

Jesus reveals the self-giving and self-sacrificing love of God, and he calls his disciples to bring the good news of the Kingdom of God to the entire world. The new evangelization is an invitation to hear this good news of the Gospel again, as if for the first time; it is a call to re-encounter the living Lord in and through the Church. This course will help participants continue to answer their personal call to holiness, to explore the responsibility of all baptized Catholics to spread the Good News, and to contribute to the Church's mission of bringing all people to Christ.

Thank you for your prayers during our recent mission trip to Nicaragua with Food for the Poor. It was an amazing trip—we travelled with 12 others from around the United States. The poverty and living conditions in Nicaragua is overwhelming—hard to imagine until it is experienced. But it was gratifying to see the work that Food for the Poor is doing, along with the other organizations that they support in the country. We were able to see many good results from their work and hopefully, in time, many more people can be helped. We will be talking more about Food for the Poor in September and will be asking for your help and give you an opportunity to support Food for the Poor : ) Can't say enough about the good work that they are doing!!

Saint of the Week Aug. 21: Saint Pius X

Pope Pius X is perhaps best remembered for his encouragement of the frequent reception of Holy Communion, especially by children.

The second of 10 children in a poor Italian family, Joseph Sarto became Pius X at 68, one of the 20th century's greatest popes.

Ever mindful of his humble origin, he stated, "I was born poor, I lived poor, I will die poor." He was embarrassed by some of the pomp of the papal court. "Look how they have dressed me up," he said in tears to an old friend. To another, "It is a penance to be forced to accept all these practices. They lead me around surrounded by soldiers like Jesus when he was seized in Gethsemani."

Interested in politics, he encouraged Italian Catholics to become more politically involved. One of his first papal acts was to end the supposed right of governments to interfere by veto in papal elections—a practice that reduced the freedom of the conclave which had elected him.

While he did not author a famous social encyclical as his predecessor had done, he denounced the ill treatment of indigenous peoples on the plantations of Peru, sent a relief commission to Messina after an earthquake and sheltered refugees at his own expense.

On the 11th anniversary of his election as pope, Europe was plunged into World War I. Pius had foreseen it, but it killed him. "This is the last affliction the Lord will visit on me. I would gladly give my life to save my poor children from this ghastly scourge." He died a few weeks after the war began. He was canonized in 1954.
