Father John's Corner

This Monday, we are celebrating Labor Day. It is good that we are spending this day to honor God's gift and blessing to us. We are also remembering that the rate of unemployment is still high. Many people still cannot find work to support themselves. Moreover, we need to be aware of the social issues of unjust labor, human trafficking, and poverty in our country and the world.

There is only a week left before the start of the new religious education school year. Please stop by the rectory to register if you have not done so.

Mr. David Spesia who is the Director of Lay Formation from the Joliet Diocese will conduct the "Foundation of the Faith: New Evangelization" workshop. Below is a brief message about him.

"David Spesia was born and raised in Joliet. His background is in both theology and education, and David served as a high school religion teacher and grade school principal before beginning his work with the Diocese in the area of evangelization and catechesis. As Director of the Newman Institute for Lay Formation, he has helped develop the Foundations of the Faith mini-courses. David has been married for over twenty years and is the father of five children."

Have a blessed Labor Day.

If you or a family member is admitted to the hospital or makes a trip to the Emergency Room, please contact Fr. John or Deacon Jeff prior to admission at (217) 784-4671.
