Father John's Corner

In the last couple of years, the diocese has designated Father's Day to have a collection for priests' pension fund. It intended to run for 5 years. However, there was a bequest toward this fund recently. Therefore, it no longer needs to have a second collection. I am aware that you still see the Priest Pension Fund envelop. After I have spoken with the finance council committee members, we have decided that any money received from these envelopes will be added into the parish's outreach fund. You may be aware that Father Dennis has decided to contribute to the Gibson City Welfare to help those in need in the community. Whatever we collected will serve that purpose.

There are only 2 weeks left to register for the Totus Tuus program. If you have not registered, please do so ASAP. We need to know the head count so we can order material accordingly.

I will travel to San Diego to see my family from June 5-13. In the mean time there will be no daily mass.

Thank you.
