THOUGHTS for the week of January 19, 2014
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's responsorial Psalm is the theme song of the good steward: "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will." May I, too, stand ready to offer myself and my gifts in the service of God.

LATIN AMERICA COLLECTION

Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Catholics in Latin America and the Caribbean face many challenges, including violence and a lack of both clergy and lay leadership to witness to the gospel message. Your support shares the faith with those in need, including the youth of Holy Family Parish in San Miguel, El Salvador. These young people, at high risk for violence, often lack an education in values and critical-thinking skills. To address this need, the parish designed a youth enrichment program. Funded by the Collection, this program gives the youth an opportunity to share their faith and break the cycle of violence in their neighborhoods. Thank you and please give generously to next week's Collection.

Calling to Parish Ministries

Anyone interested in parish ministries such as lecturing, ushering, altar serving, meals (for new moms or sick parishioners), homebound ministry (bringing communion for our sick and homebound parishioners), funeral dinners, or the church cleaning team, please contact the parish at (217) 784-4671 and we will direct you to the correct contact person. There is something for everyone and we appreciate you in any capacity you are able to provide service.

As part of my formation in the Deaconate, Sarah and I are trying to start a small group ministry. After some trial (and error) last year we would like to extend an invitation to the parish to participate in this exploration of the Word. Starting Sunday January 26 from noon to about 1PM. We would like to invite you to our house (120W 11th Street) for lunch, discussion of the Mass readings/homily, and ending with a Rosary. For your part, you need to listen, ponder, and maybe even take notes during mass about what the Word is saying to you or how the homily impacted your thoughts. Then come to our house to talk about, listen to, and reflect on the insights and questions of others. We are thinking that we would do this twice a month and we would put in the bulletin which Sunday's we would meet. This is not a long term commitment, come to one, to them all, or just every once in awhile when the reading strikes you. For at least this first meeting would you please call us (Paul cell 781-1440 or Sarah cell 781-0528) to let us know how many will be stopping by (just so we can make sure we have enough food). Come the 26th if you forget to call but want to come over, please do, there is always enough for more.
