THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JOIN ME ON MY JANUARY 2018 TOUR TO INDIA

Since coming to the United States of America in 2009, I have enjoyed sharing my Indian culture with my US parishes. People have expressed to me their wish to visit India, especially after learning that the patron saint of the Diocese of Joliet is St. Francis Xavier. His body can be viewed in Goa, India and remains undecomposed after more than 400 years.

Recently when I shared it with a friend of mine who is a partner in a tour organizing group, he told me that he can organize a tour to India including Goa. They have graciously chartered a tour program and asked me if I would be a Chaplain for the group. I agreed and I will be traveling with the group through the entire tour program during the dates of January 11-27, 2018.

The program covers most of the important Catholic centers as well as places like Delhi, Agra, the Taj Mahal (one of the Seven Wonders of the World), and Jaipur. Then the group will move on to Goa and to Kerala through Bangalore.

Kerala, my own home state, is one of the most beautiful places in the world. In the tour guide it is described as "God's own Country." In Kerala we will also visit Kodungalloor, where St. Thomas the Apostle landed in AD 52 and Bharananganam, the home of the first woman saint from India, St. Alphonsa and Mannanam, where St. Chavara Kuriakose Elias started the first Indian Carmelite order called CMI. We currently have six CMI priests working in the Diocese of Joliet, including myself. We will also visit many other beautiful places including Wayanad and spend a day in the back waters in house boats.

I would like to all of you to join me and the group. FlooHoo Tours has arranged excellent hotel accommodations supported by excellent tour guides. They will also arrange for Visa for those needing them to travel. Feel free to go online at www.floohoo.com or call (888)447-6456 to learn more about the places and hotels and reference additional details in the brochure at the back of the church. I am also available at any time to discuss this exciting opportunity and would love to share with you my beautiful India! The group will fly out of O'Hare to New Delhi on January 11, late evening and return in the afternoon on January 27.

God Bless,

Fr. Thomas

A LITTLE CATHOLIC HUMOR

The Word From Father Thomas

THE WISE VIRGINS

Someone put it very well when he said that all we have to do while we are on earth is love God.

And so that we should not be hesitant but should know how to set about doing this, Jesus told us that the only way to do it, the only recipe for it, the only method is loving one another...all the paths of the virtues lead to this door.

At root, all are destined just to bring us here more quickly, more cheerfully, more certainly. A virtue that does not lead us here is a virtue that has gone crazy. The only crack in the edifice, The only foothold, The only handhold, Is the love of these poor beings who, like us, are so hard to love because they share our own mediocrity.

And it could happen that we enjoy arriving at a fantastic level of humility, or at a poverty second to none, or at an obedience that is beyond murmur, or at a purity that is flawless; we could perhaps enjoy this-but if this humility, this poverty, this purity, this obedience has not led us to meet goodness; if the people in our house, our street, our town, are still just as hungry, just as cold, if they are still just as sad, just as gloomy, if they are still just as alone; then, though perhaps we may be heroes, we will not be among those who love God.

For the real virtues are like ten wise virgins with lamps in hand who stay huddled by that one door, the door of love, the door of concern for our brothers and sisters, and this door alone opens on the marriage feast where God dines with his friends.

~Servant of God Madeleine Delbrel

Dear Padre

NOVEMBER 12, 2017

How will it happen that Jesus will come again and lead us "through the gates"? Do you think that this will happen any time soon?

We have it from the best of authorities that the date of the world's end is hidden. Jesus said: "But of that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone" (Matthew 24:36).

In spite of Christ's admonition that the day of his Second Coming is known but to God, there have been countless false prophets who have confidently but incorrectly predicted a date for the end of the world. Most of these foolish forecasters based their claims on their misinterpretation of the Book of Revelation.

Throughout history, many have attempted to use the Book of Revelation as a timetable. They misinterpreted symbols and numbers as a forecast of what would happen in their own century. Over and over again, such people have used Revelation to predict the end of the world.

The world might end tomorrow, in five billion years, or somewhere in between. Jesus tells us we can't know for sure. We are sure, however, that this world will pass away. And for each one of us the world will end at the moment of death. What matters is that we should always be ready to meet Christ, our Judge. And we shall be ready if we follow Christ, our Shepherd. Jesus leads us safely through this life by his teaching, his example, and his grace.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
Wis 6:12-16; 1 Thes 4:13-18 or 4:13-14;
Mt 25:1-13

As we near the end of the liturgical year and prepare for Advent, the readings get us ready for the Second Coming of Jesus by addressing our own final encounter with him. The Church summarizes the last realities each person must reflect on: death, judgment, heaven, and hell. In short, when we die we will face personal judgment. If our response has been to return Jesus' love, the reward will be heaven. But if we reject Jesus, the result will be hell.

This should not be a source of anxiety or fear, but rather faith, serenity, and hopeful confidence. If we are not quite ready, now is the age of mercy, and God's grace abounds for those who seek it. It is a healthy thing to be prepared and wise. All of us know our final encounter with Jesus at the end of life is coming. It would be foolish to ignore it or not maturely reflect on its implications.

Oil is the natural resource mentioned in the Gospel because without the light and warmth that an oil lamp provided, the guests could get lost in the dark or need to abandon the wait because of the cold. As we journey through this life, awaiting the marriage feast of Jesus, our hearts can get dimmed and icy if we are not lit by the oil of love and the warmth of the Spirit. We don't know the day or the hour when Jesus will come take us into the eternal banquet, but we know for sure that day is coming.

The wise guest is the person fueled by the oil of love and ready for any eventuality. As the Boy Scout motto goes—Be Prepared.
