NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

About eight days after he said this, he took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem.

FROM THE RE DESK...

RE TEACHERS AND ASSISTANTS NEEDED
 2nd grade, 3rd/4th grade, Youth Group

RE REGISTRATION will be before and after Mass on August 24/25. A copy of a baptismal certificate should accompany registration forms of children in a sacrament year. (not necessary if baptized at OLL).

SHOES...SHOES...SHOES...

We have a parishioner in need of shoes for their shoe drive.

Shoes need to be used or new (adult, children, men or women) and in good condition... meaning soles intact, laces if necessary, no holes, dry and clean. Tie laces together and rubber band any others in pairs. They can be brought to church in a bag and dropped in the corner by the choir loft steps and I will be happy to collect them on Monday mornings.

If you didn't feel like getting in those closets before, this is some great motivation for back to school!

LET'S Fall in Love with

The Eucharist

"Could you not watch me for one hour?
...Keep watch and pray."
(Matthew 26:40-41)

There are many Sources of evil plaguing our society. However, we as a Church must be reinvigorated by the consoling certainty of God's Word, especially when it says, "Where sin abounded, grace abounded all the more:
(Romans 5:20)

As Catholics, we know where this grace comes from and where it points us to: Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church aptly puts in paragraph 1324. "The Eucharist is 'the source and summit of the Christian life.' The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself..."

This one source of life, this one summit we aspire to, is one which Catholics need to fall in love with again. The numbers of the polls differ but the reality remains that many Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and this is because they have not encountered Him there. That is so partly because they have not heard persuasive, convicted preaching encouraging them to "Behold, the Lamb of God!" and to truly open their hearts to such an encounter.

"But how are men to call upon Him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in Him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher?... So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes by preaching of Christ". Thus, many (not all) do not call upon our Eucharistic Lord in faith and love because they have not heard of His Real Presence.

However, even among those who do believe this doctrine, there are not enough Eucharistic "adorers"; not enough lovers of the Blessed Sacrament struck with "Eucharistic Amazement" as Pope John Paul II talked about at the beginning of section six in his encyclical, "Ecclesia de Eucharistia."

Now in our time in the Church is a "very acceptable time" for Eucharistic love and amazement to be stirred up in the hearts of Catholics because this is in some ways the grace of graces—to abide with and in Christ. In a time when there is a presence of profound evil in the world, we must remember that the outpouring of God's goodness is even greater. We are given the presence of His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord hidden in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Dear Padre,

What is the history behind Mary's assumption, and what does this feast mean for me?

There is a tradition among some African tribes that, when one tribal member gets a well-paying job, all the people in that person's clan share in the money earned. The success of one is shared by all.

The feast of the Assumption of Mary carries a similar dynamic. Mary, because of her special union with her divine Son, gives witness to Jesus' victory over death. In Jesus and through Mary, we share in the graces that come from that triumph.

The feast of the Assumption is an ancient one. It was initiated in the fifth century and was celebrated at the site in Jerusalem where Mary was believed to have rested as she journeyed from Jerusalem to Bethlehem. At that time, the feast was called Theotokos (which means "God-bearer") and was celebrated on August 15. Later, the feast was celebrated at the basilica where Mary's tomb was venerated. By the end of the sixth century, the feast came to be called the Dormition (Mary's "Falling Asleep"). By the end of the seventh century, the name of the feast was changed to the Assumption. Over time, the celebration of this feast increased and devotion to Mary deepened.

In 1950, Pope Pius XII officially recognized this feast. His decree brought a sense of holy sanctioning to the devout belief surrounding Mary that had been celebrated for centuries.

A Word from Pope Francis

The Assumption of Mary is a great mystery which regards each one of us, it regards our future. Mary, in fact, precedes us on the path walked upon by those who, through their baptism, have bound their life to Jesus, as Mary bound her own life to him.

Abraham is considered our father in faith because he practiced faith to an amazing degree. His faith brought him to obey God and to hope in him despite an apparent lack of evidence of God's fidelity.

In Ludovico Carracci's painting, The Sacrifice of Isaac, Abraham is looking up to God and not focused on the beloved son he is about to sacrifice. We also need to look up to God in order to value and love rightly the things here below.

Abraham understands that no creature, no gift, should take God's place in the human heart—even something as dear as a God-given child. This is the absolute, total trust God asks of us. When dealing with all of the good things God gives us, including those he has promised and those we love most, we must be willing to trust what he asks of us. God's will doesn't always make sense right away. We're often painfully aware that his ways are not our ways.

The stormy heavens in the painting's background remind us how the winds of our passions and the pressure of our secret expectations can clash with God's plans for us. A darkened front moves into our soul, making it difficult to hear his voice and see the light of his will. Here lies the heroism of faith. We walk by faith, not by sight.

For this reason, Abraham is the faithful servant found doing the Master's will. His treasure was in God.
